Cari Arredondo – Assistant to the City Manager / Civic Arts Oversight

Cari currently oversees Civic Arts operations and administration following the departure of former Civic Arts Economic Development Project Coordinator, Jen Lovvorn. Cari has taken on operational, administrative, strategic, and supervisory responsibilities within Civic Arts.

Division Oversight and Administration

- Overall operational oversight and coordination of the Civic Arts Division
- Direct supervision and coordination of Civic Arts staff and contractors
- Development of internal systems, workflows, and administrative infrastructure following staffing transitions
- Provides coverage and continuity support for Public Art and Grants functions when Mark or Hilary are out, including time-sensitive operational, administrative, fiscal, commission, and project-related needs
- Coordination with the City Attorney's Office, Finance, Purchasing, Public Works, PRW, Planning, and other departments related to Civic Arts operations, public art projects, and grants

Commission and Subcommittee Support

- Secretary and primary staff liaison to the Civic Arts Commission
- Management and facilitation of Civic Arts Commission meetings and agendas
- Lead staff for the Civic Arts Policy Subcommittee
- Attendance and coordination support for the Public Art, Grants, and Policy Subcommittees

Programs and Strategic Initiatives

- Oversight of Civic Arts communications, public-facing materials, and strategic initiatives
- Support for public art coordination, exhibitions, programming, and interdepartmental collaboration
- Development and coordination of strategic reports and planning efforts, including the Arts Resiliency Plan and related Civic Arts policy or program updates
- Staff support to the Berkeley Cultural Trust
- Direct management of the Poet Laureate program
- Lead staff for some public art projects and programs (to help address backlog, see public art responsibilities under Mark's description)

Community and Stakeholder Engagement

- Meets with community members, artists, arts organizations, grantees, commissioners, and other stakeholders to provide customer service, respond to questions, and help address Civic Arts-related needs
- Supports relationship-building with community partners and cultural stakeholders
- Attends grantee-funded festivals, arts events, exhibitions, and stakeholder meetings when possible to maintain visibility, understand community needs, and support City-funded cultural programming
- Helps troubleshoot constituent, artist, grantee, and stakeholder concerns related to Civic Arts programs, grants, public art, and commission processes

Fiscal, Contracts, and Procurement

- Coordination of Civic Arts budgeting, fiscal tracking, and procurement processes
- Tracking and coordination of Fund 148 and Fund 150

- Oversight of contracts, purchasing, invoicing (all things ERMA), grant agreements, and vendor coordination
- Support for grant administration, payment processing, reporting, and compliance tracking

Executive and Policy Support

- Executive-level reporting, Council support, policy development, and strategic planning related to Civic Arts and cultural programming
- Coordination of materials and updates for City leadership, commissions, and community stakeholders

Mark Salinas – Civic Arts Coordinator (Public Art Lead)

Mark serves as the functional lead for the City's Public Art Program and supports implementation of Berkeley's public art initiatives, including capital-project-related public art coordination, temporary installations, exhibitions, and artwork conservation.

Public Art Program Management

- Lead management of the City's Public Art Program
- Staff lead for the Civic Arts Public Art Subcommittee
- Management of public art projects associated with City capital improvement projects
- Oversight of rotating, temporary, and one-time public art installations on City property
- Management of public art collections, conservation, and maintenance planning

Project Development and Implementation

- Coordination of artist recruitment, artist selection processes, and artwork commissioning
- Management of site selection, project scoping, design development, fabrication, installation, and closeout
- Coordination with architects, engineers, contractors, fabricators, conservators, artists, and City departments
- Monitoring of project schedules, budgets, milestones, and implementation risks
- Identification of project issues and coordination of solutions to address schedule, budget, or implementation challenges

Commission, Community, and Department Coordination

- Preparation of materials and presentations related to public art projects for Civic Arts Commission review and approval
- Coordination of public art community engagement, publicity, and dedication events
- Collaboration with departments to integrate public art into City infrastructure projects
- Representation of the City in meetings with community partners, departments, boards, commissions, artists, and project teams

Public Art Quality, Maintenance, and Stewardship

- Oversight of artwork design, fabrication, installation, conservation, and maintenance
- Review of materials, techniques, and long-term maintainability of public artworks

- Coordination of ongoing maintenance and conservation plans
- Research, data gathering, and reporting related to public art, site context, materials, and assigned projects

Hilary Amnah – Civic Arts Coordinator (Grants Programs Lead)
Hilary serves as the functional lead for Civic Arts grants administration and grant program coordination, including grant application processes, panel review, grantee support, compliance tracking, and payment coordination.

Grant Program Administration

- Lead administration and coordination of Civic Arts grant programs
- Staff lead for the Civic Arts Grants Subcommittee
- Management of grant application processes, timelines, guidelines, and program materials
- Administration of grant management systems and documentation
- Support for grants-related Commission materials, recommendations, and approvals

Panel Review and Award Coordination

- Coordination of grant panel review processes and panelist administration
- Support for panelist communications, scoring logistics, and payment coordination
- Preparation and organization of grant award materials and related documentation
- Coordination of award notifications and post-award communications

Grantee Support, Compliance, and Reporting

- Management of grantee communications and technical assistance
- Oversight of grant agreements, compliance tracking, and reporting processes
- Coordination of grantee onboarding requirements, including paperwork, vendor setup, business license requirements, demographic reporting, and invoice readiness
- Support for grants data tracking, demographic reporting, program evaluation, and final reporting

Fiscal and External Funding Coordination

- Coordination of grant payment processing and related documentation
- Support for grants-related invoice routing, and payment readiness
- Coordination with nonprofit organizations, artists, and community partners regarding funding opportunities
- Assistance with state and external arts grant opportunities supporting Civic Arts programming